Step into a world of timeless elegance with this extraordinary, fully restored historic castle—an architectural masterpiece that blends centuries-old grandeur with modern luxury. Nestled amidst lush, manicured grounds, this rare property offers commanding views of the surrounding countryside.

The principal dwelling is a double fronted former Castle. Entering the property through the entrance vestibule which leads into a dual aspect full width cosy living space with underfloor heating and open fireplace. Off the living space, there are openings into the two turrets, one houses a home office and the other is currently used as an exercise space. From the living room there is a door through to the open plan dining space and sunroom, which looks across the property's gardens. From the dining space there is a bespoke staircase giving access up onto the first floor, there is also access through to a modern fitted kitchen with a range of contemporary style wall and base units. Also on the ground floor there is a potential fifth bedroom, currently used by the vendors as a craft space, this room benefits from a large walk-in wet room style en-suite which has Jack and Jill access through to the utility room as well.

The grounds are spectacular at Woodland Towers and the location is ultra convenient. The property benefits from underfloor heating, oil-fired central heating and double glazing throughout. The current vendors have spent time and effort complying to the registered Building Act and creating what is a truly spectacular home in the Isle of Man.
